Please read the information below carefully before applying:

CAS Ambassadors serve for recruitment and education efforts with the College of Arts and Sciences. Primary responsibilities:

- Attend Admissions events on behalf of the College of Arts and Sciences
- Assist with campus visits for advising and academic meetings
- Full participation in all Ambassador training
- Provide the Dean with feedback and student perspectives

Desired qualifications:

- Demonstrated leadership skills
- Public speaking experience
- Strong oral and written communication skills
- Independence and reliability

Applicants must have successfully completed one semester of coursework in the College of Arts and Sciences with at least a 2.75 GPA at the time of application. Applicants must be full-time, degree-seeking undergraduate students with a declared primary major in the College of Arts and Sciences.

There is a mandatory Fall Training Retreat in August. Applicants unable to attend this event will not be selected.

The CAS Ambassador Program is an opportunity for students to gain professional experience by serving as official representatives of the college. For that reason, other requirements include:

- Minimum commitment of 30 hours per semester (including training and travel)
- Close communication with the department/program of your major
- Strong ethical character when sharing information on behalf of the college
- Responsible use of digital communications, including email and social media
- Minimum participation in 30 hours of service in the academic year
The college rewards Ambassadors for their hard work and service in the following ways:

- New Ambassadors will be paid $10.00/hour
- Business cards and promotion materials will be provided
- CAS Ambassador gear
- Showcase on the College of Arts and Sciences web site

APPLICATION INFORMATION

I. Resume
   Please attach a resume that describes your work experience, college organization/activities, and honors and awards.

II. Personal Introduction
   Written statement about yourself in 250 words or less. You may share whatever you like. Suggested topics include rationale for your major, interests outside of the classroom, long-term goals, or your reason for applying to this program.

III. Scheduling Issues
   If you have other commitments (organizations, study abroad, personal commitments), please share those at the bottom of your personal introduction.

IV. References
   Please list the names, phone numbers, and email addresses of one UT faculty member and one other non-family member who would be willing to serve as character references. You must also obtain signatures of those faculty members.
